

LEAD WRITING TA (LWTA) POSITION

Duties

As part of the Writing-Integrated Teaching (WIT) program, a writing-instruction initiative in Arts and Science, the Lead Writing TA (LWTA) will work with WIT staff and the WIT Unit Contact to support course instructors and TAs in selected courses, as well as support undergraduate student writing development overall in the hiring department. The LWTA will perform the following duties:

- Participate in training sessions (with LWTAs from other units) in July and throughout the year (late August, early January, and an end-of-year event)
- Read book chapters, articles, etc. on writing education pedagogy
- Meet with WIT staff, departmental WIT Contacts, and course instructors to plan writing assignments activities and for tutorials, labs, or lectures
- Design and lead training sessions and consultations for course TAs on writing-related topics, such as providing feedback to students on critical reading, writing, planning tutorial/lab activities related to writing, etc.
- Develop and/or adapt resources on writing instruction (such as marking rubrics and assignments) for instructors, TAs, and students
- Communicate regularly by email and in person with course instructors, WIT staff, departmental WIT Contacts and others to implement WIT activities
- Collaborate with LWTAs in other units by meeting in peer groups and sharing writing instruction resources
- Collect and analyze data on WIT (e.g., surveys, student writing samples, TA and instructor focus groups, etc.)
- Document activities (e.g., help draft unit WIT goals, provide monthly updates, write a final a report about WIT activities in the unit, etc.)

Qualifications

- Current PhD student with least two years' experience as a course TA, whether leading tutorials/ labs, in-class instruction, or grading
 - Excellent oral communication and interpersonal skills, particularly the ability to work effectively with and show tact when communicating with administrators, course instructors, and TAs
 - Strong administrative skills, including ability to schedule meetings and training sessions, plan and document work
 - Strong time management skills with ability to meet multiple deadlines
 - Strong facilitation and presentation skills and/or experience leading/facilitating workshops
 - Evidence of superior writing skills in their discipline
 - Flexible schedule, willing and able to accommodate short notice requests for meetings with WIT staff, course instructors, and TAs
-

Details

Campus: St. George

Salary: SGS I/II - $52.97 hour + vacation pay

Dates of Appointment: July 1, 2025 – April 30, 2026

NOTE: The applicant must be available for approximately 25 hours of training and preparatory work (e.g., consultations with WIT coordinators, contacts, and course instructors) throughout July and August. Mandatory training sessions will be held online on July 15, July 16, and July 17, 2025; subsequent mandatory training sessions will be held in person on August 25, 2025, January 9, 2026, and March 30, 2026. All training sessions are held from 1:00 to 4:00 pm Eastern.

Number of Positions: 1

Number of Hours: 100

Please submit the application to: <https://taships.iit.artsci.utoronto.ca/hmb/postings>